

WATERCRAFT INSPECTION WEBINAR SERIES

New York Sea Grant is hosting a webinar series on the logistics of starting and managing the watercraft inspection component of a water-based stewardship program. Registration is required for each of the WebEx-based individual webinar sessions at: https://reg.cce.cornell.edu/WatercraftInspection_112

Contact Brittney Rogers, 315.331.8415
New York Sea Grant Extension

Fall 2015 Watercraft Inspection Steward Program Webinar Series Schedule

Thursday, October 29, 9:30am to 10:30am

- Identification, Impact, Prevention & Control of Aquatic Invasive Species
Megan Pistoiese, St Lawrence Eastern Lake Ontario Patterned Hip for Regional Invasive Species Management

Thursday, November 5, 9:00am to 10:30am

- How to Start a Watercraft Inspection Program with Brittney Rogers, New York Sea Grant Extension
- Standardized Watercraft Inspection Data Collection with Eric Holmlund, Paul Smith's Adirondack Watershed Institute Stewardship Program

Thursday, November 12, 9:00am to 10:30am

Current Watercraft Inspection Program Models: Staffing Structures & Funding Mechanisms Panel:

- Adirondack Region: Eric Holmlund, Paul Smith's Watershed Steward Program
- Conesus Lake: Louie Bo Freeman, Livingston Cornell Cooperative Extension
- Lake George: Dave Wick, Lake George Park Commission
- NYS: Patty Wakefield and Megan Phillips, NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation

Friday, November 20, 9:00am to 10:30am

- What Anglers and Boaters Know & Still Need to Hear About Aquatic Invasive Species: Nancy Connelly, Cornell University Natural Resources Department
- Watercraft Inspection Legislation and Regulations: A Facilitated Discussion with David G. White, New York Sea Grant Extension

Photo by New York Sea Grant

New York Sea Grant's Watercraft Inspection Steward Program Leaders Trainer Brittney Rogers shows boaters some aquatic debris taken from their boat trailer during a watercraft inspection education stop.